

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F2
Placement	Pathology
Department	Blood Sciences (Chemical Pathology & Haematology), Microbiology and Histopathology are covered at a laboratory level. Clinical Haematology involves direct patient care.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	An opportunity to find out more about Pathology and how it contributes to patient care by observation in the laboratories. Care of ward Haematology patients with Clinical Haematology. The chance to pursue interests that will help in achieving career aims.
Where the placement is based	Barnsley Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Jyothi Rao, , Dr Dominic Chan-Lam, Dr Youssef Sorour, Dr Rob Cutting, Dr Melanie Levy - Plus other Consultants and laboratory staff within the departments.
Main duties of the placement	Clinical Haematology with its direct patient care is the only part of the rotation with fixed duties. Other areas can be approached flexibly and adjusted to reflect the career aspirations of the individual.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Normal working hours (approximately 9am to 5pm) Monday to Friday. No out-of-hours duties so no banding; basic salary only.
Employer	Barnsley Hospital NHS Foundation Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.