

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F2
Placement	Emergency Medicine
Department	Leeds General Infirmary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Emergency department at LGI sees approximately 120,000 patients per year, including all trauma, cardiology, stroke and paediatric patients for the city conveyed by ambulance. A number of self-presenting patients with general medical, respiratory, surgical and gynecological problems are also seen. • The department has a 14 bed clinical decision unit (CDU) with an associated observation area supporting the delivery of a number of short stay and ambulatory patient care pathways and protocols including minor head injury, PE, DVT, low risk cardiac chest pain etc. • The department also has an active minor injuries unit seeing ambulatory walk-in patients with minor injury and illness. St. James's University Hospital <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Emergency department at SJUH sees approximately 90 000 patients per year, including all acute medical, elderly, respiratory, surgical and gynaecology patients for the city. The department does not see paediatric patients nor those involved in major trauma. • The department has a 12 bed clinical decision unit (CDU) with an associated observation area supporting the delivery of a number of short stay and ambulatory patient care pathways and protocols including minor head injury, PE, DVT, low risk cardiac chest pain etc. • The department also has an active minor injuries unit seeing ambulatory walk-in patients with minor injury and illness.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	F2 doctors work as part of the multidisciplinary team in all areas of the department (resus, majors, minors and CDU) and would be expected to see, assess and management patients with very close support and supervision from senior colleagues. Learning Opportunities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Weekly half-day teaching sessions (disturbance free). • Good educational and clinical supervision. • Opportunity to complete life support courses

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wide range of e-learning materials available for use. • Regular departmental simulation sessions. • Ample opportunity for case by case discussion and supervised practice.
Where the placement is based	Emergency Department, Jubilee Wing, Leeds General Infirmary. Emergency Department, St James's University Hospital, Chancellors Wing.
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Mrs J Russell, Mr w Hamer, Dr S Davey, Dr A Dasgupta, Dr M Niam, Dr J Thornley, Dr L Kilshaw, Dr K Reynard, Dr H Jafari, Dr S Nuttall
Main Duties of the placement	Provide excellent level of care to patients presenting to the Emergency department with supervision and support in all areas of the ED.
Typical working pattern in this placement	The F2 roster involved a variety of shifts (day/late/evening and nights). -Nights are worked in blocks of 3 and 4. -Weekend work at a ratio of 1 in 2. Leave is fixed.
Employer	Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.