

Deputy Dean

Health Education England, working across Yorkshire and Humber is seeking to appoint a Deputy Dean.

Accountable to the Dean, the ideal candidate will be an experienced NHS professional with a thorough understanding of the healthcare system. He/she will have strong leadership and communication skills, be able to work effectively as a member of a multi-professional team, and be a strategic thinker and implementer, with the ability to successfully deliver major change initiatives in a complex working environment.

The successful candidate will have lead areas of responsibility and will be expected to work across the region.

The Deputy Dean will establish appropriate processes and mechanisms to engage with local education providers, commissioners of service, Medical Schools and other stakeholders to ensure effective delivery of programmes. As a senior member of the team, the Deputy Dean will also take responsibility for contributing to and leading HEE projects as specified by the Dean, and will deputise for the Dean as required.

This post will be available on the basis of a secondment arrangement to Health Education England.

How to apply

Applications should be addressed to Mr David Wilkinson, Dean and submitted via email to Katie Cobb, Business Manager, katie.cobb@hee.nhs.uk

Your application should include:

- A copy of your current curriculum vitae
- Supporting statement, no more than one-side A4, detailing why you believe that you are suitable for the post

Informal enquiries can be made to:

Dean: Mr David Wilkinson
david.wilkinson@hee.nhs.uk

Deputy Dean: Dr David Eadington
david.eadington@hee.nhs.uk

Deputy Dean: Dr Peter Taylor
peter.taylor@hee.nhs.uk

Deputy Dean: Mr Jon Hossain
jon.hossain@hee.nhs.uk

Closing date for applications: 22nd February 2018

Interview date: TBC