

Doctors in Training Induction e-learning programme – 1 July 2018-31 March 2019 usage

Device usage

When asked if they understood the learning objectives, 86% of participants agreed or strongly agreed.

"The scenarios were realistic, thought-provoking and challenging."

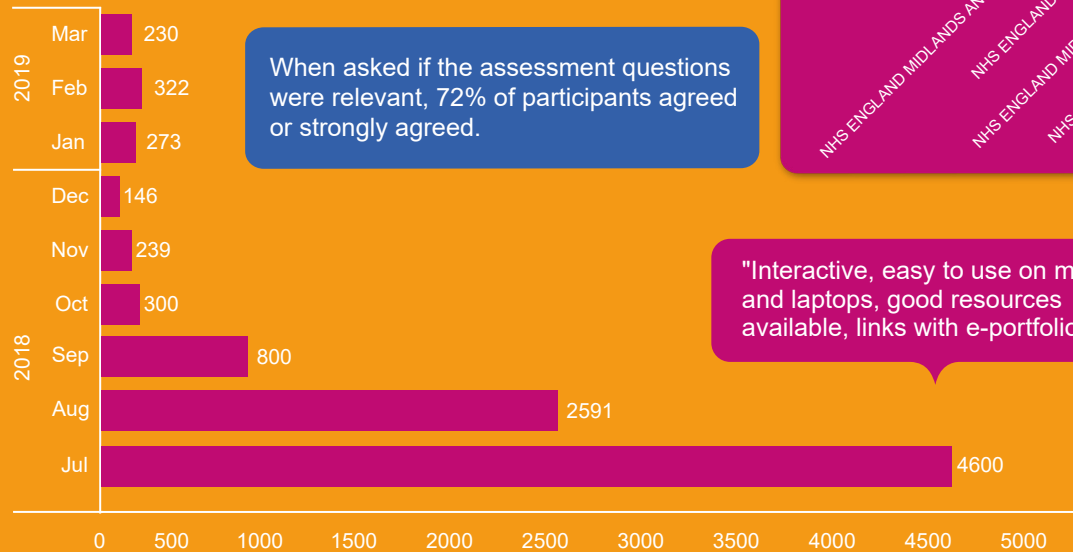

When asked if they found the scenarios relevant, 74% of participants agreed or strongly agreed.

Summary of session launches by NHS region

"Very relevant to role. Highlights some important learning points. Death certification exercise was especially useful. Programme was easy to use and was very interactive and engaging."

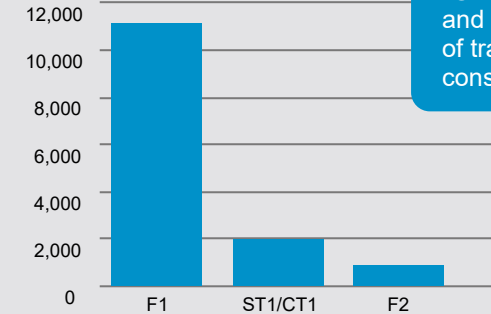

Sum of users logged in

When asked if the assessment questions were relevant, 72% of participants agreed or strongly agreed.

"Interactive, easy to use on mobile and laptops, good resources available, links with e-portfolio."

Enrolments by grade

"Good preparation for starting work, and made me consider certain aspects of training that I had not previously considered."

The Doctors in Training Induction Programme was launched on 1 July 2018